Handling: best practice

Whenever possible, lift a skate or ray to move it

Hold or lift a skate or ray under mid-body and base of the tail

Avoid contact with the gills and spiracles, which can be easily damaged

Avoid dragging or holding a skate or ray solely by its tail, this can easily damage the animal