

- Where possible, release sharks from the side of the boat
- Only inboard a fish when absolutely necessary
- NEVER use a gaff

Whenever possible,
lift a shark to move it

Hold or lift a shark under mid-body and base
of the tail

Avoid contact with the gills, which can be easily damaged

Dragging or holding a shark solely by its tail can easily damage the animal

